Bichard Recommendations & Progress

Brian Gorman

Head of Disclosure Scotland

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

19. To create a Register of Persons suitable to work with children.

A Register of Persons unsuitable to work with children and Protected Adults will be created as proposed in the Protection of Vulnerable Groups Bill.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

20. Development of a Quality Assurance Framework for Forces.

The Quality Assurance Framework has been developed and will be introduced to the Scottish Police Service and Disclosure Scotland over the next few months.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

21. All posts, including those in schools, that involve working with children, and vulnerable adults, should be subject to the Enhanced Disclosure regime.

Introduced by Regulations in April 2006.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

22. The Registered Bodies' precise responsibilities for checking identities need to be clarified urgently.

This Guidance is covered in the New Application Form and Completion Notes.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

23. Registered Bodies, or the CRB, should be able to check passports and driving licences presented as proof of identify against the Passport Service and Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency (DVLA) databases.

This Guidance is covered in the New Application Form and Completion Notes. The direct access to these by Disclosure Scotland databases has not as yet been negotiated.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

24. There should be an expectation that documents produced to confirm identity should, wherever possible, include a photograph.

This Guidance is covered in the New Application Form and Completion Notes.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

25. Fingerprints should be used as a means of verifying identity.

Withdrawn

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

26. Guidance should be issued to Registered Bodies to verify that applicants have given a full and accurate account of their current and past addresses.

The Application Form and Guidance Notes covers this. The introduction of IPLX in the current system in Scotland will address this recommendation.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

27. Registered Bodies should be required to confirm that they have checked the information on the 'Police Check Form' in accordance with CRB guidance.

Covered in New Application Form and Guidance Notes.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

28. The consents that applicants currently give on the 'Police Check Form' should be sufficiently broad to enable the requisite checks to be undertaken.

Covered in New Application Form and Guidance Notes.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

29. Incomplete or withdrawn applications should in future be returned to the Registered Body, and not to the Applicant.

This practice has always been in place in Scotland and will continue.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

30. Proposals should be brought forward as soon as possible to improve the checking of people from overseas who want to work with children and vulnerable adults.

Negotiations ongoing worldwide, particularly within EU countries and those countries with the highest number of immigrants to this work sector.

Bichard Initial Recommendations

Recommendation

Outcome

31. As a priority, legislation should be brought forward to enable the CRB to access the following additional databases for the purposes of vetting:

- Her Majesty’s Customs & Excise;
- National Criminal Intelligence Service;
- National Crime Square;
- British Transport Police; and the Scottish and Northern Ireland equivalents of the Protection of Children Act List and the Protection of Vulnerable Adults List.

Legislation introduced in April 2006 to access databases of 15 organisations. This work is ongoing.
